

INTELLECTUAL & DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITY CARE

AUTISM SERVICES: DETROIT WAYNE INTEGRATED HEALTH NETWORK (DWIHN)

The Detroit Wayne Integrated Health Network (DWIHN) provides assistance to individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) and their loved ones by helping to navigate benefits and care.

Call 1-800-241-4949 to verify eligibility for Medicaid services and screenings for the Autism Benefit.

SUPPORT FOR MICHIGAN FAMILIES: MICHIGAN FAMILY TO FAMILY

Michigan Family to Family provides resources, information, and education for children and youth with special health care needs, the families who love them, and the professionals who support them.

For more information, visit F2FMichigan.org.

SUPPORT FOR METRO DETROIT FAMILIES: REECEWORLD OF MICHIGAN

ReeceWorld of Michigan is a Southfield-based organization that supports families in the special needs community in the Metro Detroit area with food, adaptive devices, and other essential items.

For services and assistance email info@reeceworldofmichigan.com or call 248-799-6026 and select extension 4.

DEARBORN PUBLIC HEALTH

SKILLS & PROGRAMS FOR LIFE: CREATIVE EMPOWERMENT OPPORTUNITIES

CREATIVE EMPOWERMENT OPPORTUNITIES is a Metro Detroit area organization that provides individuals with intellectual disabilities, autism spectrum, those who are physically challenged, and those in recovery from mental illness with adaptive programs and tailored activities. Programs include training for daily living skills in functional academics, physical health, social recreation, volunteering, and employment.

For locations, programs, services, and more, visit CreativeEmpowerment.org or call 586-569-