Division Updates

Mystic

- Mystic is under a nice blanket of snow to protect the turf during this cold spell. The crew has been cleaning/clearing out areas to beautify and create open site lines.
- We have been reaching out to outing coordinators to fill our calendar with family, corporate, fundraisers and school events. Annual retention rate is a high percentage and feedback is extremely positive.
- Golf leagues have been contacted and informed of payment deadlines. Mystic is at capacity for our weekday league offerings.

Dearborn Hills

- Birdies Restaurant at the golf course is opening in early February. Looks like the date is going to be February 4th(pending any unforeseen situations).

Camp Dearborn

- Opening party May 17th
- MSU master gardener extension program launching in spring, contact Steve Guibord at squibord@dearborn.gov if you want to be involved.
- Currently reworking the rec field programs, evening events for the upcoming season, check the new events calendar on the website.

- Restructuring the website
- Feb 3rd upcoming season reservations open up

Parks

- 2025 Park reservations open February 3rd
- Ford Woods inclusive playground project is nearing completion. Construction to finish pending weather.

Theater

- The 2025 Daddy Daughter Dance will be held on February 7th and 8th in the Lincoln Ballroom. This year's theme is "An Evening with the Witches of Oz," this popular event that is expected to draw a sold-out crowd as the Lincoln Ballroom transforms into the Emerald City. It is noteworthy that this is the final event conceived by Martin Zbosnik, Theater Cultural Arts Manager, as he prepares to assume the position of Director of Recreation for the City of Dearborn Heights. He expresses his gratitude to all for the opportunity to serve the community and create unforgettable memories for its residents.

- The Dearborn Theatre Collective will perform “Into the Woods” on January 31st thru February 2nd in the Michael A. Guido Theater. Directed by Rashid Baydoun, this production will again showcase the young talented actors we have in the City of Dearborn. The summer season will feature classes and performances of “Finding Nemo Kids” and “High School Musical.”

Seniors

- AARP Tax prep starts February 4.
- We have a new group, Michigan Rugg Artistes, that do rug hooking. They will be meeting one Saturday a month in the new Art Activity Room, beginning February 8.
- Senior Alliance has now moved to Dearborn on Greenfield at Rotunda. They will be holding their monthly business meetings in Studio A. They will be doing presentations about Medicare throughout the year. Now that Senior Alliance is located in Dearborn, they are taking a more active role in our Senior Center.
- We are excited that The Players Guild of Dearborn has requested to be included in our annual Health & Information Expo.
