2-76-26. WHEREAS: The City, via C.R. 10-548-24 and following a competitive process, sold 22190 Michigan Avenue to Khalil Dabaja in October 2024 based on his proposal to redevelop the parcel into a multi-story commercial project, and

WHEREAS: The provisions of the purchase agreement for that sale included various conditions, one of which was a deadline to commence construction within one-year of closing, and

WHEREAS: The purchase agreement included provisions for a 6-month extension that could be considered and granted by City Council following a written request from the purchaser no later than forty-five (45) days before the construction commencement deadline and that deadline, February 19, 2026, is fast-approaching, and

WHEREAS: While the project is making significant progress, the purchaser, on December 13, 2025, submitted a written request for six-month extension of time to commence construction of the Commonwealth Business District development located at 22190 Michigan Ave., and

WHEREAS: The purchaser made substantial progress through good faith efforts to complete a world-class design for the property and after a formal review of their plans, and productive discussion around necessary revisions and comments, both the purchaser and the Economic Development Department are confident that the project is on the right track and conclude successfully, and

WHEREAS: The purchaser took additional time to work through complex items that helped the project both comply with City requirements, such as stormwater, and opportunities to provide enhanced commercial spaces for our downtown. Barring any unforeseen barrier or circumstance beyond the control of the purchaser or the City, the Department and the Purchaser are further confident that the new deadline, if granted, of August 19, 2026 will be enough time for plan and permit approval to be completed so that construction can commence; therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the request of Khalil Dabaja, for a six-month extension of time to commence construction of the Commonwealth Business District development located at 22190 Michigan Ave., be and is hereby approved, resulting in a new construction deadline of August 19, 2026, subject to certain stipulations; be it further

RESOLVED: That this resolution be given immediate effect.

2-78-26. WHEREAS: February marks the start of Black History Month, a federally recognized celebration of the contributions African Americans have made to this country and a time to reflect on the continued struggle for racial justice, and Black History Month fosters cultural awareness and understanding, while encouraging education about contributions made by Americans of color, and

Whereas: Since 1976, the US has marked the contributions of Black People and celebrated the history and culture of the Black experience in America every February. This month is an opportunity to reconcile with the past, pave the way for a more just future, and celebrate all of the amazing figures who have taken their place in the annals of Black History. The omission of much of the history and contributions of African-Americans from textbooks and other literature has impeded awareness and appreciation, and

WHEREAS: Black History Month honors the history and on-going achievements of Black Americans and provides an opportunity to reflect on the centuries of struggle that have brought us to this time of reckoning, redemption, and hope. The celebration of Black History Month is a positive way of recognizing the culture and history of African-Americans as vital to the core beliefs and values of this society, and

WHEREAS: The City of Dearborn honors the innumerable contributions of Black Americans while reflecting on the systemic barriers Black Americans have faced and still face to this day. It is with recognition of a challenging past and many wrongs to learn from that the City honors the deep significance of Black History Month. The contributions of African-Americans have been vital to the growth and development of the City of Dearborn, and

WHEREAS: Reflecting on the burdens of racial prejudice and stereotypes can open the door to innovative ideas and provide insight into building an environment in Dearborn that supports our continues efforts to strive toward racial equity, and to be a place of freedom, opportunity, and inclusiveness for everyone; therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the 35th City Council proclaims February 2026 Black History Month and encourages the residents of Dearborn to learn about the ever-evolving history of Black Americans and participate in activities that foster awareness and appreciation of African-Americans' contributions to shaping the history of America and help to continue our efforts to create a world that is more just and prosperous for all; be it further
