4-185-26. WHEREAS: Jefferson East, Inc. (JEI) is a Detroit-based nonprofit that has successfully deployed a home repair program in Detroit for several years, funded by resources from DTE's Energy Efficiency Assistance (EEA) Program and the program funds a variety of improvements associated with energy efficiency and weatherization, and

WHEREAS: JEI secured additional resources to expand this program, and desires a partnership with Dearborn to establish a scalable model for deploying home repair services in communities outside of JEI's historic service area, which is anchored in Detroit's East Jefferson corridor, and

WHEREAS: The pilot program would support a minimum of 25 homes within the City of Dearborn and would be run entirely by JEI, with oversight and support from the Economic Development Department, and

WHEREAS: Generally, the pilot would support the following repairs:

- Weatherization activities: roofing, windows, and other repairs that maximize the home's efficiency in terms of minimizing the impact of the elements on home conditions and utility usage.
- HVAC and other utility-related systems in the home
- Porches, steps (internal and external), and other home elements that affect safe access to the utility systems for maintenance purposes (e.g. steps into a basement where the furnace is), and

WHEREAS: These activities complement work that is also eligible for the City's Home Repair and Porch and Step programs, including our CDBG activities and the recently secured $1.5M federal grant for home repair work, and

WHEREAS: The Economic Development Department requests authorization to establish a pilot program with Jefferson East, Inc. (JEI) to allow us to both serve more homes and incorporate industry best practices into our internal programs, ultimately leading to better outcomes for Dearborn homeowners, and

WHEREAS: It is also requested that the Mayor and Economic Development Director be authorized to sign the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) Agreement and all necessary documents with Jefferson East, Inc. (JEI) on behalf of the City; therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Department of Economic Development be and they are hereby authorized to establish a pilot program with Jefferson East, Inc. (JEI) for weatherization and energy efficient focused home repair, for the term of twelve-months; be it further
